

Medical Costs for Uninsured Visitors to the U.S.A. (as of Jan 2015)

Incident	Cost (CAD)	Medical Evacuation Costs (Air)	Cost (CAD)
Gastro (I ate something)	$800	Banff to Vancouver	$7,400
Sunburn	$2,200	Cuba to Toronto	30,500
Broken Leg (Compound Fracture)	$30,654	Acapulco to Halifax	$39,700
Fractured Arm (Slip on tile)	$4,400	Las Vegas to Toronto	$22,400
Broken Hip (Slip on tile)	$23,000	Beijing to Toronto	$114,000
Stitches (Cut on Coral/Volleyball)	$1,500
Diving Accident(Decompression)	$16,985
Malaria	$3,100
Flu and complications	$2,000
Heart Attack	$340,881

Eligibility

If you decline the insurance offered the agent will have you sign a waiver indicating your intentions. This releases the agency from any responsibility in case anything happens to you. If you are under 69 the travel agent will complete your application online. Here are some highlights from the "TIPS" Insurance policy as per eligibility.

No medical condition for which your physician has advised you not to travel

No diagnosis of a terminal sickness

Cannot reside in a nursing home, assisted living home, hospice, convalescent home or rehab centre

Must have provincial, federal or territorial health coverage

Non-residents can only purchase cancellation or a non-medical plan

Must purchase plan before departure

Must complete eligibility questionnaire if covered trip value exceeds $15,000

If you are not eligible your coverage is null and void with no benefits paid